KARAM is a festival of agriculture, sisterhood, friendship, and cultural unity. The festival also has a close link to nature which is associated with harvest, which symbolizes fertility, prosperity and all that is auspicious.

Girls celebrate the festival for welfare, friendship and sisterhood by exchanging a jawa flower. To mark this great event of Tribal community in Goa we celebrated this festival on 2nd and on 9th October in Goa as we work with migrants and domestic workers.