

The Carnival, a curtain-raiser to the centennial celebrations, was inaugurated by the versatile actor and proud alumna Radhika Sarathkumar, who was the Chief Guest. Adding to the richness of this momentous occasion, a 90-year-old alumna, representing the enduring spirit of our institution, also graced the inauguration, bridging generations in celebration. Key celebrities from various fields participated in the carnival adding glamour, fun, and meaning to the richness of the carnival.

The festivities included fun game stalls, sumptuous food stalls, various attractions and activities, captivating onstage entertainment, and an array of other stalls including corporate and stalls by non-profit organizations. Participants had a mega-lucky draw and attractive bumper prizes, filling the day with excitement and joy. The first copy of the souvenir which was released on this occasion was received by Sr. Pushpa Louis, Province Leader of Good Shepherd CEIN.

This event with a footfall of over 20,000 persons, truly brought all the sisters, partners-in-mission, school students, parents, alumni, well-wishers and the entire community of Chennai together to celebrate the joyful mission of Good Shepherd Sisters! The remarkable feature of the Joy of Giving Carnival was that every aspect of the carnival was planned to be eco-friendly creating an event that aligns with sustainability principles by minimizing waste, conserving resources, and promoting eco-friendly practices. Indeed, we not only promoted the cause of Girl Empowerment but also did it in an environmentally responsible way.

The proceeds of this carnival will contribute towards the Educational Scholarship for underprivileged girl children
