

STOP HUMAN TRAFFICKING

“Human Trafficking is an open wound on the body of contemporary society. It is crime against Humanity”.

Human Trafficking is a crime that exploits women, children for numerous purposes including forced labour and sexual exploitation.

1st August 2017, The School assembly began with a Prayer service, followed by a short programme depicting the injustice against women and young girls.

