

WORLD DAY AGAINST TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS

“Leave No Child Behind in the Fight Against Human Trafficking”

@ Madgaon|Goa|30 July 2024: Sisters of the Good Shepherd at Goa in collaboration with the Konkan Railway Police organized awareness cum signature campaign programme on the World Day Against Trafficking in Persons to create more awareness among the people keeping the theme of this year, “Leave no child behind in fight against human trafficking”.

The programme was attended by Konkan Railway Police personnel's, Konkan Railway staff, commuters', children, religious Sisters and taxi drivers. Police Inspector Sunil Gudlar was among the dignitaries along with Sr. Neticia, Project Coordinator of the Child Protection Project.

The key objective of this awareness programme was to create an impactful awareness on trafficking of children in various ways and circumstances keeping in mind the theme of this year.

Sr. Neticia in her addressed note said, “Human trafficking is a network which is spread far and wide. We need to be aware of the things happening in and around us and keep one safe and others too”.

She also said, “It is the responsibility of the parents, guardians, caregivers and all those who are responsible in the growth of the child. As this year theme highlights, “Leave no child behind in fight against human trafficking”.

The Good shepherd Motivational center girls performed an awareness dance on the empowerment of girls and women and the staff sang an awareness song which focused on, “To live and fight without fear in this society”.

Later, the awareness flyers were released in the hands of Konkan railway Police station, PI Sunil Gudlar and distributed among the participants and commuters. One of the commuters appreciated and thanked for organizing such programmes.

The programme ended with the vote of thanks by Sr. Jyothi which was followed by the signature campaign.

