

Good Shepherd Convent GARRATOLA

Young women on the move - Economic Inclusion of Tribal Young Women Rose Bakery was Inaugurated on 16th November 2016 in the presence of the Congregational Leadership Team members Srs. Josita and Frances, Sr. Sabina Pathrose our Province Leader (CEIN) and Manuela Colette from Youth Economic Justice - Scotland. Apart from them there were also political and civil dignitaries namely Minister of Parliament for Baihar Tehsil and Jan Pad President present for the inaugural function. We were also happy to have the presence of our dear Sisters from nearby communities, priests and religious from other Congregations who support us in our ministry.

The purpose of this programme is to empower the vulnerable Young Tribal Women through enterprise development.

Our Goal is to contribute to the economic empowerment of young women in India and increase their participation in the formal economy.

Our target is to train twenty five young women every year for this programme.

